

NACCE 7th Annual Conference October 11-14, 2009
Hyatt Regency O'Hare Hotel - Chicago, IL

Entrepreneurship: Finding Your Opportunity in Today's Economy!

Entrepreneurship represents hope and empowerment, especially during turbulent times. Entrepreneurial leadership and entrepreneurship education are critical for your community college, businesses in your community and your students! Don't miss this conference to learn more about building and running programs that will drive success for your college and your community. Exceptional learning and networking opportunities are planned throughout the conference. Leave the event with more knowledge, more connections and more tools to succeed!

2009 Keynote Speaker
Legendary Publisher &
Best Selling Author
Harold Evans!

The 7th Annual NACCE conference program will consist of keynotes, workshops, breakouts, posters, and facilitated discussions based on the following tracks!

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Community College:
- Presidents
 - Administrators
 - Deans
 - Faculty
 - Continuing Education
 - Workforce Development
 - Grants and Development

- Entrepreneurship Curriculum and Experiential Learning
- Community Colleges and Economic Development Agencies
- Entrepreneurship Outreach and Specialty Programs
- Professional Development-- Supporting Faculty in Teaching
- Sustainability--Keeping Entrepreneurship Offerings on Track

The full conference program will be released soon. Visit www.NACCE.com for updates!

Member discounts, Scholarships, & Grants Available!*

*Browse industry vendors in our exhibit hall to learn about new products and services being offered to the entrepreneurship community.

*The Coleman Foundation will conduct an Elevator Grant Competition at this year's conference! Educators will "pitch" their plans to create or improve an entrepreneurship program. Winners will be awarded grants at the NACCE Conference. For More Information visit www.NACCE.com

Register today at www.NACCE.com

For More Information: Phone: (413)-306-3131 Email: register@nacce.com